

Program Outcomes of B.A.Course in Psychology

The learning outcomes a student should be able to exhibit on completion of a degree level program in Psychology are as follows: -

- 1-Develop a base for fundamental Psychology with the help of relevant examples from everyday life.
- 2- Knack to link up theory with individual experiences and varied settings.
- 3- Understand how psychological theories and principles relate to everyday life and applied knowledge of behaviour modification and life skill training.
- 4- Review appraisal and applications of theory of life span developmental psychology in various settings.
- 5.-Develop insight and analyze the contribution of social Psychologists to the understanding of human society.
- 6- Recognize and identify different types of disorders and their clinical picture and management.
- 7- Development of skills to plan therapeutic and intervention program with regards to the goals of therapy.
- 8- Develop the skills of conducting and documenting experiments in the field of Psychology.
- 9- Analyse the basic concepts of applied statistics in Psychology.
- 10- Develop the skill of description and communication of data through advanced methods to depth exploration.
- 11- Develop capability to apply knowledge of personality theories for self and societal growth.
- 12- Develop insight into procedural scientific steps of conducting a research.
- 13- Develop the skills of various methods and techniques for scientific conduct of research in psychology.
- 14- Analyze and apply the understand of psychological testing.
- 15- Develop an awareness of how once own thoughts and actions impact the environment (and vice versa) and one may also acquire greater environmental concern. Build the critical thinking skills in relation to environmental conservation.